BATTLE REVIVAL

Prestonpans is synonymous with the Battle of Prestonpans and the Prestoungrange Arts Festival in conjunction with Peter Mackenzie and the Community Council have decided that this is one aspect of our history that can no longer be ignored. SATURDAY 17th SEPTEMBER sees 2 major activities happening to celebrate the Battle which took place on 21 September 1745. Firstly, the BATTLE OF PRESTONPANS TOUR starts at 10am, with tour guide Peter Mackenzie departing from the Jet Petrol Station on your way to Tranent. This tour takes in 4 sites and finishes up at Col. Gardiner's House, Bankton House, Prestonpans at 12 noon. There is no charge for the tour but you will require transport to travel from one site to the next. Should there be inclement weather, please contact Peter on 01875 853445. The second part to these celebrations is the BATTLE CEILIDH to be held at the Prestoungrange Gothenburg in the evening. The evening will commence at 7:30pm with Peter Mackenzie as the master of ceremonies for the evening. The Goth will be serving up a light finger buffet and plenty of dancing, so get your kilts on! Tickets are available for the Battle Ceilidh from the Goth, prices at £10.00pp

Re-enactment of the the Battle of Prestonpans, staged at Milford, USA, 2000.

NORTH SEA TRAIL DAY

East Lothian is one of 26 partners in the European funded NAVE Nortrail project that will help economic and social regeneration of the North Sea Coastal Region through conserving and highlighting the area's heritage by means of developing a path network. The North Sea Trail route in East Lothian is the John Muir Way which runs through Prestonpans along the beach.

Nortrail Day on 4 September 2005 will be the first joint transnational event focusing on the North Sea Trail with which will stretch along the coastlines of 7 north European countries including Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Germany, the Netherlands, England and Scotland.

Here at the Prestoungrange Gothenburg we will be flavouring our normal Sunday activities at the Goth will have a distinctive North Sea flavour. The micro-brewery is busy brewing a new ale for the occasion - Nortrail Porter, which will be available in the bars or in bottles to purchase. Our CLASSIC Sunday CARVERY will be adding delicacies to the menu from our neighbouring countries and Andrew Crummy will be doing a tour of the Prestoungrange Murals, situated along the John Muir Walkway at 3pm. Meeting point will be the Goth carpark.

Everyone is welcome to come along.

ROBERT AKA GEORGE

Over the last couple of months many of you may have noticed George delivering Brushstrokes through your letterboxes, many of you may have stopped him and had a chat. Well George, doesn't just deliver our Brushstrokes for no good reason, he uses these Brushstroke "runs" as endurance training for marathons. But these are no ordinary marathons. Over the past 5 years George has run marathons as a way to support and raise funds for DREAMS COME TRUE! Foundation who help fulfil the dreams of terminally and seriously ill children. George has completed marathons in Paris, Rome, New York, Chicago, London and Edinburgh, raising close to £10,000 for the charity. George is appealing to you all to sponsor him, so if you see him out and about, stop him, fill in his sponsorship form or if you would like to sponsor him, call him on 07752 638275.
