ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The following people and organisations have made the writing and researching of this book possible:

Annemarie Allan; Frances Baird for typing services; East Lothian Local History Centre, Haddington; George Edmond; Jim Forster of Prestonpans Local History Society; Midlothian Local Studies, Loanhead; National Archives of Scotland, Edinburgh; National Library of Scotland, including the Map Library, Edinburgh; National Monument Record Library, Edinburgh; Bill Paterson, of the Scottish Place Name Society. However, any errors of fact or interpretation are mine alone.

Finally above all, thanks are due to Kate, for her support and forbearance whilst I was writing and researching this work – I promise to get my share of the DIY jobs done now!

About the Author

Andrew was born and lives in Prestonpans. He was educated at Preston Lodge High School. Since leaving school Andrew has had a variety of jobs and is at present working with the Scottish Rights of Way and Access Society (ScotWays) as Assistant Secretary. Previous jobs have included working with Thomas Nelson and Sons Ltd in Edinburgh and also as a Museum Assistant at Prestoungrange Industrial Heritage Museum for three seasons. Further studies as a mature student have included Heritage Studies at Jewel and Esk Valley College; Rural Recreation at the Scottish Agricultural College in Auchincruive and Tourism Management at Queen Margaret University College, Edinburgh where he graduated with a First Class Honours in 1999.
