

INTERNATIONAL MURALS SUMMER SCHOOL Prestonpans Scotland August 13th/ 19th 2006

In parallel with the Global Association's Murals Art and Cultural Tourism Biennial Conference an International Summer School will be convened that splices Master Classes and specific activities [as boxed throughout] with key elements of the Biennial Conference itself. The Summer School may be booked in lieu of the Global Conference for a Fee of £50* Sterling and those taking this route are expected to follow a schedule as set down below with the opportunity also to participate in the Global Conference as shown in colour.

* Each Master Class I – X is bookable but with limited numbers admitted. The maximum is 12 people per session; if under 18, delegates must be with an adult. A Master Class Fee of £10 per Class is payable to defray marginal costs incurred in addition to the basic Summer School Fee.

N.B. Summer School Reception Dinner on Monday and breakfast and afternoon teas Wednesday to Friday are included in the £50* Fee as is The Civic Reception on Friday. All other meals and refreshments are to delegates own account.

Venues: The Summer School will convene as several locations, with the Prestoungrange Gothenburg as the hub.

- Painting Classes: Prestoungrange Arts Festival Studios
- Drawing Classes: Penny Pit Community Hall
- Muraltowns Fair: Penny Pit Community Hall
- Mural in a day: Prestonpans Primary School
- Conference Sessions will normally be at The Prestoungrange Gothenburg [The Goth]
